Product Warranty

Unless expressly stated otherwise, we do not offer any warranties or guarantees for any products of any nature.

Where we offer manufacturer's warranties for our Products, such warranty will be specified on our Website and the customer will be required to contact the dealer from whom they purchased the product and follow the instructions provided by the dealer. Please note that you may be required to provide the following information to the dealer:

- Proof of purchase / order number;
- A detailed description of the issue with your product;

In certain circumstances you may be required to send clear pictures of the product to enable the dealer to assist you with your claim and you may be required to send the product back to the return address provided by the dealer at the time.
